CREATIVE METHODOLOGIES FOR STUDYING CHANGING CLIMATES

// emotion - space - weather

DAY 1 | 16 September

Morning session. Knowing changing climates

8.30 - 9.00	Check in
9:00 - 9:30	Welcome and Introduction
9.30 - 11:00	Paper session 1. Weaving diverse climate knowledges Moderator: Gerben Moerman From subjects to scientists: Reimagining climate-health research through community-led inquiry in informal settlements in Kampala City by Hakimu Sseviiri, Paul Isolo Mukwaya, Warren Dodd, Megan M. Schmidt-Sane, Peter Kasaija, Moses Tetui, Alice Sverdlik, Jacqueline Mbabazi Lost in translation: Visual metaphors for when words don't match worlds in climate communication by Natascha Ng, Zhe Wang, Zixuan Hong Cultivating island futures: Mapping Siargao Island in seas of change by Cara Flores, Josie Chambers, Britta Ricker, Charm Wissink-Nercua, Elena Marie Enseñado Creative and art-based methods for intergenerational communities and infrastructures in ecological care by Francesca Ranalli
11:00 - 12.00	Keynote by Prof Isabelle Anguelovski Joy, opportunities, and trade-offs in engaged research: (Re)Conciliating priorities and capacities for academics and partners
12:00 - 13.00	Lunch break

Afternoon session. Living with changing climates

13.00 - 14.30 Paper Session 2. Sensing and embodying heat Moderator: Heidi Mendoza

Thermal diaries: Tracing the embodied and spatial rhythms of extreme heat in Karachi by Soha Macktoom and Nausheen Anwar

Infrastructural heat diaries: Studying the emotional geographies of urban heat from Rio de Janeiro's favelas by Francesca Pilo'

From measured to experienced heat: A multimodal analysis of temperature, urban form, and social media in Mexico City by Richard Lemoine-Rodríguez, Henri Debray, Carolin Biewer, Luis Inostroza, Hannes Taubenböck

Photo walks as a methodology for multispecies pedagogies at Rome's Ex-SNIA
by Micol Sonnino

14:30 - 16:00 Paper Session 3: Storying and reimagining water Moderator: Daniele Tubino de Souza

Storying solutions for historical constraints: Storytelling trainings as an emergent method for data collection by Ariadna Romans i Torrent

Re-imagining groundwater futures: A Political Ecology of futures-making under drought by Dona Geagea and Heidi Mendoza

From mapping to method: The transect as an analytical tool by Lekha Samant

On learning from the floodplain by Mahwish Khalil

16.00 - 17.30 Paper Session 4. Food and table encounters Moderator: Martha Dietrich

Politics of taste in changing climates by Niranjana Ramesh & Bhagath Singh A

Table manners: Participatory performance as a method for studying and rehearsing climate relations by José Ibarra

Reconnecting schools and local ecologies: Teachers, Indigenous Knowledge, and pluriversal climate adaptation in Indonesia by Fadilla Mutiarawati

DAY 2 | 17 September

Morning session. Co-creating climate knowledges

8.30 - 9.00 Check in

9.00 - 11.00 Paper Session 5. Collaborations and knowledge production Moderators: Hannah Knox & Aparna Parikh
*This session will feature collaborative work developed within research groups

IMAGINE Adaptation

Relationality must be at the heart of climate adaptation evaluation: Insights from urban nature-based solutions by Sean Goodwin, Cecilia Alda Vidal, Ana Terra Amorim-Maia, William Lewis, Maria Loroño, Marta Olazabal

From lived experience to actionable knowledge: Learning through participatory evaluation of urban climate adaptation by Cecilia Alda Vidal, Aitana Lopez Cambria, Maria Loroño Leturiondo, Angela Lara Garcia, Marta Olazabal

Sokola Institute

Entangled forestscapes and the reworking of Halom: Orang Rimba's ontological struggle in a changing landscape
by Aditya Dipta Anindita

Soundscapes and the loss of forest worlds: Listening to environmental change with Orang Rimba by Alberta Prabarini & Jangat Pico

Co-animation as climate method by Butet Manurung

Embracing Immigrant Knowledges for Just Climate Health Adaptation (IMBRACE) / Barcelona Lab for Urban Environmental Justice and Sustainability (BCNUEJ)

Heat imaginaries, belonging and migrants' right to the city: The case of Athens and Berlin by Fizza Fatima

Feeling climate in the city: Participatory methods and migrant knowledge for equitable adaptation by Kim West and Panagiota Kotsila

Hamer Center for Community Design

Co-creating climate action by Lisa D. Iulo

11:00 - 12.00 Keynote by Hira Nabi Becoming volcanic: Cracking, erupting, sleeping, singing

12:00 - 13.00 Lunch break